KS2 had a lovely trip to Beck Isle Museum on Tuesday this week.

They learnt a lot about the collections, that are related to local historical interest and they inspired, educated and entertained the class with the stories.

Welburn Hall did Spectrum Day!

Main school had a fantastic time getting messy and learning more about autism on our special, off-timetable spectrum day. It was a very colourful experience and the children had a ball!

Today we say goodbye to Phil who after 5 years working here at Welburn Hall is moving on to a new role. We would like to wish Phil all the very best for the future!

Mark has been a fantastic help at The National Centre for Birds of Prey this week on his work experience. He couldn't believe how big some of the birds were and thought the dirty feed trays were disgusting. All his scrubbing paid off and resulted in very clean trays for the birds to feed from.
